There are ten separate buildings scattered a short distance apart that comprise the Center facilities. There are 30 guest rooms with 64 bed capacity. The three large meeting rooms are:

Farrow Hall / Dining Room / Registration Office Complex

Consisting of a beautiful and spacious octagonal, 1100 square foot room with sound system and a large marker board. Room can be set up to suit needs of group, either with chairs or back-jacks and cushions on carpeted floor. Adjacent to this meeting room is a 28' x 40' multi-purpose room that serves as a registration off, a breakout room with refreshment center, display of books for sale and extra setting for private dining. The administrative offices are located adjacent to the registration office. Presenters may have access to their meeting room 3 hours earlier and clear room 1 hour after ending.

The Chapel

The Chapel is nestled among the trees with a beautiful view of the mountains. The octagonal meeting room is carpeted and has lots of large windows. Setting capacity in this 900 square foot facility is about 70 people.

Hammond Hall

Hammond Hall is an 18' x 32' meeting room with kitchenette and restroom. The room can be set up to suit the needs and purpose of the group. It has a stereo system, large marker board and overhead projector.

Comfortable Rooms

At the Center for New Beginnings, you will not be "roughing it". There are no bunk beds in Spartan cabins. All rooms at the Center are comfortably furnished, each with heating and air and clean linens provided. Guests are housed in an eclectic array of ten separate buildings spaced a short distance apart but within easy walking distance, providing maximum privacy and flexibility of use. Lovely accommodations can be provided for 64 overnight guests, in 29 guest bedrooms in these 10 different buildings. Rooms are heated and air conditioned including linens, towels, and soap.
